New Eagle Mugs Coming Soon

One of the First Mugs - Eagle #3

All of our readers are familiar with the Troop 101 Eagle Mug. It is traditionally a special gift presented to our Eagle Scouts at their Court of Honor. The look has changed a couple times over the years with changes mostly in the size and emblem placed on the mug, but still with the Scout's name, date they passed their board, and number on the back.

Up until 2008, every one of our Eagles was guaranteed one of these coveted mugs, but then First Class Camp became an optional recognition. At the time, our Troop required Scouts to complete both First Class Camp and Cooking Merit Badge. With both becoming optional, it was decided that the 101 Eagle Mug would be presented to only those Scouts willing to go above and beyond the normal requirements. (Cooking has since become Eagle Required by the BSA)

Mugs for Eagle #93 and Eagle #138

We soon encountered a major production challenge. In 2016, the BSA changed the metal Eagle Emblem to plastic and our technique of curving the Emblem on the mug caused them to break. We also had trouble finding mugs similar to the Coleman mugs we'd been using for so many years because Coleman decided to discontinue production.

The 2016 Mug, first Engraved

So, with the Coleman mugs discontinued and the old emblems no longer usable, we needed to look into designing our own logo that could be laser-engraved on the mugs. In the 2016 Q3 Issue of the Alumni Quarterly, we unveiled the new mugs, which looked pretty sharp. Unfortunately, the engraver had some issues with the mugs, and we didn't get as many made as we needed.

Now we're in 2020 and our supply of mugs ordered back in 2016 is running out. Looking at how close many of our Scouts are to achieving Eagle, we will surely need more mugs starting in late 2021.

That brings us to the New Troop 101 Eagle Mug. We've found a reliable engraver and these new mug samples look awesome and we can finally meet the demand.

Here's where you can help. We are taking orders for these new mugs as a special Troop 101 fundraiser.

The Troop has decided to stick with the standard stainless-steel mug, but as you can see, we could also get them with powder coatings. (Royal Blue shown at right)

If you are a 101 Eagle, you can order the new 101 Eagle mug, complete with your Name, number, and the date you passed your board of review.

Also, we're happy to extend this offer to all other Troop 101 Alumni (non-Eagles) with the Troop logo engraved on the front and 3 short lines of text (of your choosing) on the back of the mug.

No doubt this will make a great holiday gift!

The New Troop 101 Eagle Mug

Each mug will be $50 and available for pickup at the Scout Building. We can also ship them to you for an additional $5.

Just visit our Website using one of the following links. The link will add the mug of your choice to your cart. After posting payment, please email info@troop101.net with what you'd like printed on your mug and the address where we can ship them.

Thank you for your continued support!
